ABOUT ME:

Hey!

My name is Dmitry, I am the Project Manager.

I started learning HTML / CSS through video tutorials and online courses.

I got most of my knowledge from self-education and practical experience.

In the last places of work, I held the position of PM, my team consisted of 6+ people.

My experience as a project manager is 1+ year.

I always try to develop and improve my skills. I am looking for interesting projects and is open to any cooperation and communication.

Why Project Manager?

Because I enjoy my work, creating cool projects and leading the team!
